INTRODUCTION TO WEEBLY NOVEMBER 10 AND 17

Weebly

FIRST THINGS FIRST

- Internet Safety
- What makes a good website
- Learn about Weebly
- Gather information
- Create sites

INTERNET SAFETY

- How do we use the Internet?
  - E-mail
  - Social networking
  - Gather information
  - Blogging
  - Videos
  - Virtual worlds

INTERNET SAFETY

- Risks
  - Inappropriate conduct
    - We are still accountable for our actions online.
  - Inappropriate contact
    - Bullies, predators, hackers and scammers
  - Inappropriate content
    - Sometimes we find things unintentionally that aren't appropriate and weren't what we were looking for.

CYBERBULLYING

- What is it?
  - Same thing as bullying only online.
    - "Bullying or harassment that takes place online; includes posting embarrassing pictures or unkind comments on a person's profile or sending them via instant message or email."

CYBERBULLYING

CYBERBULLYING

- How to stop it...
  - Don't respond
  - Don't retaliate
  - Talk to a trusted adult
  - Save the evidence
  - Block the bully
  - Don't be a bully

SOCIAL NETWORKING

- Similar to the real world
  - Be you
  - Be nice
  - Don't talk to strangers
  - Don't share private information (password, address, phone number, last name...)

PASSWORDS

- Never give out your password
- Use different passwords for different sites
- What makes a good password?
  - 8 characters long
  - Not just letters. Include numbers, capital letters and symbols.

INTERNET SAFETY

- Important points:
  - Information credibility
  - Once it's posted it can't be taken back.
  - Treat people the way you want to be treated.

INTERNET SAFETY

- Sources:
  - NYSED:
    - http://www.p12.nysed.gov/technology/internet_safety/
  - iKeepSafe:
    - http://www.ikeepsafe.org/
  - Net Cetera:
    - http://www.onguardonline.gov/topics/net-cetera.aspx

INTERNET SAFETY SITE

This is an example of a site about Internet safety.

aplinternetsafety.weebly.com

GOOD SITE, BAD SITE

- Things to consider
  - How easy is it to navigate the site?
  - Is the text easy to read?
    - Is the text too big, too small or do the colors make it difficult to read?
  - Who published the site?
  - When was it last updated?

GOOD SITE, BAD SITE

CRITICAL EVALUATION OF MIDDLE SCHOOL L ©1996-2009. Kathleen Schrock (kathly Schrock's Guide for http://school.discoveryeduca	EVEL /@kathyschrock.n Educators	•
1. What type of connection do you have to the Internet?  •	able other:
4. What is the name of the site?
Part 1: Looking at and using the page As you look at the questions below, put an X in the yes or no colum	YES	NO
Does the page take a long time to load?
Are the pictures on the page helpful?
Is each section of the page labeled with a heading?
Did the author sign his/her real name?
Did the author give you his/her e-mail address? Is there a date on the page that tells you when it was last updated?
Is there at date on the page that tells you when it was last updated?  Is there an image map (big picture with links) on the page?		_
is there a table (columns of text) on the page? (Check the source code.)		_
If so, is the table readable with your browser?
If you go to another page on the site, can you get back to the main page	7
Are there photographs on the page?
<ul> <li>If so, can you be sure that photographs have not been changed by t</li> <li>If you're not sure, should you accept the photos as true?</li> </ul>	he author?
Summary of Part One Using the data you have collected above, write a paragraph explaining vecommend this site to a friend for use with a project.	vhy you would or would	n't

Would you have gotten more information from an encyclopedia? Can you tell if the information on the page is current?  Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?  Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the beauthor of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's content.	Would you have gotten more information from an encyclopedia?  Can you tell if the information on the page is current?  Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?  Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does she author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use some absolute words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Is the information on the page uset	ui ioi your project?
Can you tell if the information on the page is current?    Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?	Can you tell if the information on the page is current?  Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?  Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information flow that you think is wrong?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superfative words (like "the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Can you tell if the information on the page is current?    Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?	Can you tell if the information on the page is current?  Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?  Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information flow that you think is wrong?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superfative words (like "the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does she author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superfative words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author tell you about him/hersel?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does up-to-date information make a difference for your project?  Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author lell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Would you have gotten more inforr	nation from an encyclopedia?
Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information that you think is wrong?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/hersel?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  • What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information that you think is wrong?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like "thest" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?	Can you tell if the information on the	e page is current?
Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does up-to-date information make	a difference for your project?
Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the author of the page present some information you disagree with?  Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's			_
Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong?  Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/hersel?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the author of the page present some information that you think is wrong? Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")? Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")? Does the author tell you about him/hersel?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic? Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?
Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does some information contradict information you found elsewhere?  Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superiative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's			_
Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herselt?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  • What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the author use some absolute words (like "always" or "never")?  Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are agoing to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does some information contradict	information you found elsewhere?
Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  • What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the author use superlative words (like the "best" or "worst")?  Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are opinion is of the page's
Does the author tell you about him/herseit?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Does the author tell you about him/herself?  Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's			-
Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Do you feel that the author is knowledgeable about the topic?  Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are oping to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Are you positive the information is true?  What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's			-
What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	What can you do to prove the information is true?  Summary of Part Two Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are oping to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's			_
Summary of Part Two  Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Summary of Part Two Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	<ul> <li>what can you do to prove the i</li> </ul>	ntormation is true?
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's	Looking at the data you have collected in part two, compose a note to the author of the Web site explaining how you are going to use the Web site in your project and your opinion is of the page's
		Summary of Part Two
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us
		Looking at the data you have colle- explaining how you are going to us

Part 2: What's on the page and who put it there?
As you look at the questions below, put an X in the yes or no column for each.

Does the title of the page tell you what it is about?

Is there a paragraph on the page explaining what it is about?

©1996-2009. Kathy Schrock. All rights reserved. Permission to reproduce for classroom use granted.

Permission is not granted for re-posting or derivative works. Linking is permitted.

©1996-2009. Kathy Schrock. All rights reserved. Permission to reproduce for classroom use granted. Permission is not granted for re-posting or derivative works. Linking is permitted.

GOOD SITE, BAD SITE

- SUNY Albany
  - http://www.albany.edu/
- Albany Public Library
  - http://www.albanypubliclibrary.org/
- APL Computer Camp
  - http://aplcomputercamp2010.weebly.com

STUDENTS.WEEBLY.COM

CHOOSE A TITLE

The title can appear at the top of your page. You can change this later.

Keep it simple and relate it to your site.

MY TITLE IS "INTERNET SAFETY"

USE THE "DESIGN" TAB TO CHANGE THE APPEARANCE OF YOUR SITE.

USE THE BASIC ELEMENTS TO ADD TEXT OR PICTURES TO YOUR SITE.

USE THE "MULTIMEDIA ELEMENTS" TO ADD A PHOTO GALLERY, FILE OR VIDEO.

GET STARTED!

Go to: students.weebly.com and log in.

Raise your hand if you have any questions and I will be around to help.

aplinternetsafety.weebly.com